France wins the Motocross of European Nations in Castelnau de Levis

The France A team won the Motocross of European Nations that was held this year at the beginning of the sporting season in Castelnau de Levis (France). Second position went to Italy and third Sweden.

The event had a new formula that see the composition of national teams with 4 young riders of the classes 85cc, 125cc and 250cc. The aim was to show skills to new hopeful riders. The experiment met a positive acceptance by riders and saw a good participation.

The event included also for the first time the Motocross of European Nations for Women with the victory of France A team followed by German and Italian teams.
