Superstock 600cc European Championship and Junior Cup in Assen (The Netherlands)

The second round of the Superstock 600cc Road Racing European Championship and the European Junior Cup were held this weekend in Assen (The Netherlands). The competition was held under difficult weather conditions between 6 degrees and 22 degrees. In addition, the weekend was both rain and sun.

Both classes had very fine sporting results and there was fighting between many riders.

EC Superstock 600 had a very exciting conclusion with 5 riders who finished within 1 second. Belgian Gauthier Duwelz (Yamaha) confirmed the victory of Aragon, followed by Australian Adrian Nestorovic (Yamaha) and Swiss Bastien Chesaux (Honda).

FIM European Junior Cup was played with very close competition where the winner, the Dutch Bo Bendsneijder (Honda), was not found between 1 driver in the final corner before the finish line.

The next round is scheduled on the 11th of May in Monza (Italy).
