Superstock 600cc European Championship in Portimao (Portugal)

The fourth round of the Superstock 600cc Road Racing European Championship was held yesterday in Portimao (Portugal).

The first Practice on Friday was running under perfect conditions, after the start of the second Qualifying on Saturday, the first drop of rain is coming and all riders come in to the pit. The Race Direction decided of Wet-Practice and on the end of the Qualifying the track was dry.

The race was fought spectacularly among the first 4 riders! Every time changed the leader and on the end of the race the winner Franco Morbidelli (Italy/Kawasaki) was 0,06" before the second rider Gauthier Duwelz (BEL/Yamaha) and this 0,1" before the third Bastien Chesaux (SUI/Honda)

The provisional rankings see the leadership of Gautier Duwelz with 77 points in front of Swiss Bastien Chesaux with 56 points.

The next race will be held on the Imola Circuit, Saturday 29. June 2013
