Honda NSF 100 Cup in Cheb (Czech Republic)

Hot temperatures welcomed all riders at this weekend's Honda NSF 100 Cup in Cheb in Czech Republic. Already during the qualifying sessions it was Filip Salac who headed the time sheets. Behind the pole sitter there were only two thousandths between the runner-up Kevin Orgis and Peetu Paavilainen on third position.

Also in the first race Czech Filip Salac was unstoppable on his home circuit. He was followed by German Kevin Orgis, who could save the second place by one second just in front of Finnish Peetu Paavilainen. The second race showed a smooth copy with the same trio in the same order on the podium.

The next races take place on Saturday and Sunday 3rd and 4th of August at Vransko, Slovenia.
