Success for the Training Camp for the preparation of the 2014 Honda 150 EC

The announced training camp for young riders that will participate to the 2014 Honda 150 European Championship, was held the past weekend (22nd and 23rd of March) and saw the participation of 22 young riders from 10 countries.

Aim of the training was to provide useful information on the next championship by the Honda staff.

In addition, a special section of training was dedicated to physical and psychical preparation and it was managed by a special team of FIM Europe, which provided advice and special tips also to the parents that will follow their young riders.
