Final of the Enduro EC assigned to Uhliřské Janovice (Czech Republic)

The new place for the fourth and final round of the Enduro-European-Championship will be in the Czech Republic, in Uhliřské Janovice at 6th and 7th of September 2014. Well known by the riders, while there was already an heat last year. The organizer helped quick, when the original planned final in Hungaria could not take place.

Now the "EnduroKlub Uhliřské Janovice v ACR" will organize the final as a regular 2-days-competition - without the extravagant final-cross at the last day.

Apart from the Czech Republic still Latvia, Estonia and Portugal had applied for hosting the final run. The decision in favor of the Czech Republic was given in the relative proximity to the original venue.
