Final three of Individual Speedway EC in Holsted (Denmark)

The 3rd Final of the 2014 FIM Europe Speedway European Championship (SEC) took part in Holsted (Denmark). Before the event a very heavy rain has made difficult the life of the organisers and riders. Due to the very hard and professional job of the organizing staff the track has got raceable one hour after the stop of the rain. The spectators have been very loyal and their premium was a nice and exciting race.

There have been good fights and also surprises. At 80 % of the race program nearly half of the riders have been on the same points! The victory went to Russian Emil Sayfutdinov who has retorted for the Danish victory of last round in Russia. The runner up has been Danish Peter Kildemand and the current European Champion, Martin Vaculik of Slovakia has finished on the third place.

The last round of the SEC will be held in Czestochowa (Poland) on 19.09.2014..
