FIM Europe preparing for Congress in Malta

On Monday November 17th the first inspection was held in Malta for organizing the 2015 FIM Europe Congress, from 2nd to 5th July 2015.

The Secretary General Alessandro Sambuco and the Treasurer Michal Sikora met the President of the ASMK Frans Deguara and the Secretary General Johann Pace by making a visit to the Grand Hotel Excelsior (you can see the promo video of the Hotel at the website <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JO3Svb5dh2M>), which will host the General Assembly. It was also visited the Golden Tulip Vivaldi Hotel, where was planned the cheapest accommodation for those who will choose it.

The essential features of the two tours that will be offered to the accompanying persons, were outlined, too: on Friday there will be a boat trip to Gozo with Lunch on the Island and Saturday morning will be visited La Valletta.

Michal Sikora participated to the first inspection as organizer of the previous Congress: this ideal handover between old and new organizer of the Congress will continue from this year on, to make the business planning and optimization of financial resources more effective.

From January a monthly report will start, with updates and all relevant information to attend the Congress.
