EMX 65/85 South East Zone European Championship at Sevlievo (Bulgaria)

The third round of the European Motocross Championship EMX65 and EMX85 South East Zone took place in the circuit of Gorna Rositsa - Sevlievo. Despite the good preparation of the venue, a very heavy rain on Saturday morning forced the organizers to use the Junior version of the track, avoiding the famous uphill.

Press Release

In the EMX65 class, Marius Popovici from Romania (KTM) shared one first and one second place with the Hungarian rider Laszlo Tecsi (KTM). However on the top of the podium there was Popovici, who won the second race. Third step of the podium for Noel Zancz from Hungary (KTM).

In the EMX85 class the rider from Croatia Nikola Hranic (Husqvarna) scored the same number of points as his big rival Adam Kovacs (Hungary, KTM), both conquering one first and one second place in the two races. The Croatian rider won race two and received the winner's trophy. Third place on the podium for Kristof Jakob (Hungary, Husqvarna).
