Hill Climb Road Racing European Championship at Carpasio (Italy)

Italian Francesco Curinga on Honda was the fastest rider this weekend at the third round of the European Road Racing Hill Climb Championship at Carpasio, 25 kilometres from Sanremo.

The event was also valid for the Italian Hill Climb Championship. It was a sunny day and 132 riders were at the start. The event was well organised by Moto Club Corse Badalucco and saw the participation of around 850 spectators.

In 250 GP Marco Queirolo won both races and so did Francesco Curinga in Supersport, who in race2 did the fastest time in 1.26,20.

Also in the other classes the same rider won both races: Stefano Bonetti in Superbike and Luca Trivella in Supermoto.
