2016 FIM Europe Congress
Kavala - Greece - June 30th - July 2nd 2016

A joint-meeting between FIM Europe and AMOTOE was held in Kavala on the 3rd-4th February, for the organization of the next FIM Europe Congress, which will take place in this locality of the East Macedonia and Thrace (Greece). The aforesaid meeting was attended, for the FIM Europe, by the Treasurer Mr. Michal Sikora and by the Secretary General Mr. Alessandro Sambuco and for the AMOTOE, by the President Stelios Korelis and by Mr. Panagiotis Kalaitzis.

The Congress venue will be the Hotel Lucy of Kavala, a five-star hotel located at the tip of cape Kalamitsa, offering spectacular sea views of the Aegean and blue flag sandy beach.

In addition to this facility, other hotels will be offered to the participants, all of a good standard and overlooking the sea, in order to allow a wider choice according to the budget availabilities. These other facilities, located at a short distance from the Hotel Lucy, will be connected to the Congress hotel by a bus shuttle service.

During the meeting, not only the organizational aspects of the Congress works of Councils, Commissions, Panels and of the General Assembly were examined in detail, but also those concerning the recreation activities, especially dedicated to the accompanying people.

In fact AMOTOE has organized tours, as a gift for the participants, during the day of Friday and on Saturday morning, in order to show the beautiful archaeological, historical and natural sites of the Region, enriched by pleasant gastronomic interludes.
