FIM Europe President Dr Wolfgang Srb personally welcomed spectators at the European 125 cc Youth Track Racing Cup, at Divisov (Czech Republic).

"This event is a perfect chance for the stars of tomorrow to compete against young top riders from other Countries and to prove their skills", stated Dr Wolfgang Srb. "We will for sure see some great battles that will unfold on track in the various heats".

The event of the European 125cc Youth Track racing Cup confirmed these words: riders from six nations battled for the first title of their career in fine weather conditions. On the home track Czech riders were particularly strong. Jan Kvěch was the winner and Filip Šifalda finished in third position. Lukas Wegner from Germany conquered the second position.
