FIM Europe meets Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union

On Saturday October 28th the meeting of the Alpe Adria Road Racing Commission was held in Wien, at the headquarters of the Triumph Club Wien. At the meeting President of FIM Europe Dr Wolfgang Srb was present, together with Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union President Luigi Favarato, the members of the Road Racing Commission and the promoter and organizer of the championship.

The Commission dealt with several points, both of sporting and technical regulations, which have been developed and defined, while the topic of having mono-brand tires or not for the 2017 series is still under discussion after various proposals both from the Commission and from the promoter.

It was decided that this issue will be defined within a few days.

Alpe Adria Road Racing Commission Chairman Mr. Martin Hejduk will inform all members of the commission, Jacek Molik for Poland, Attila Nagy for Hungary, Robert Zikovic for Croatia, Ladislav Snegon for Slovakia, Dusana Harvanova for Czech Republic and the Head of Vintage Commission Peter Balaz, who were all present.

The last point discussed was the date and venue of the next General Assembly, which still has to be decided and will soon be communicated to the involved Federations.
