European Individual Speedway Under 21 in Debrecen (Hungary) - Cancelled for bad weather conditions

The Semi-Final 1 of the European Individual Speedway Under 21 Championship scheduled on May 25th in Debrecen (Hungary) was cancelled because of weather conditions.

The organisers had done a great job to set the track, but the Jury decided to stop the race after heat 3 because of heavy rain and thunderstorms (practice had been held regularly and with fine weather conditions).

The event was cancelled because the weather forecast predicted heavier rain for the next day.

A new date for the event will be fixed. At the moment the next event remains in Macon (France) on June 26th.
