European Snowcross Championship First day of races in Demino

The third round of European Snowcross Championship has started in Demino, Russia. With good snow conditions, the first day of race, on Saturday, offered great show and an unexpected winner: the Russian rider Dmitry Sklyarov, who had not taken part to the first two events of the Championship in Norway. As for the first day of races, also today the third round of the European Series will be broadcast live on Russian Television.

The races can be followed in live-streaming, too, at the website HDextreme.ru according to the schedule of the day.

Today's qualifying practice will start at 12.00 and the last heat is supposed to end at 15.30. After the first day of races, with one single day to the end of the European Championship, Ole-Herman Hagen Sjøgren from Norway is leading the standings.

The standings after the Saturday races of the third round:

- 1 - Ole-Herman Hagen Sjøgren - Norway with 133 points
- 2 - Fredrik Kirkhus - Norway with 126 points
- 3 - Eetu Karjalainen - Finland with 109 points
- 4 - Viktor Hertén - Finland with 108 points
- 5 - Denis Ryazantcev - Russia with 102 points
