Meeting with Dorna in Madrid

On April 16th the FIM Europe representatives Mr Martin de Graaff, Mr Alessandro Sambuco and Mr Rodolfo Romeo met Dorna representatives Mr Enrique Aldama - Dorna COO-CFO, Mr Oscar Gallardo - CEV Director, Ms Amparo Porto - Promoter Area Director and Mr Oriol Abad - Legal Counsel, in their Headquarters in Madrid.

On the table several issues concerning the upcoming FIM CEV Repsol European Championship, the Stock 600 European Championship, running with the World Superbike and the development of the cooperation between FIM Europe and Dorna for the future.

"The meeting took place in a very good atmosphere", Mr de Graaff stated at the end of the meeting. "The two parts agreed with the proposals from both sides. This year will be used to harmonize Rules and ideas for future developments to the European Road Racing Championships. FIM Europe will continue in developing new Road Race Cups in all parts of Europe with the common aim to feed the most important Championships".

"We are very proud", added Mr Aldama, "of the partnership the FIM Europe has with the Dorna group and the incredible work they are planning to do to continue forming young talent riders with the objective of feeding the big Championships".
