FIM Europe Executive Board meeting at Fiumicino (Italy)

Following the Non-Sporting Council and Non-Sporting Commission Meetings held yesterday, the FIM Europe Executive Board was held today at Fiumicino (Italy).

Among the most urgent decisions which were taken, some relating to the Sport that will allow to send, in the coming days, the usual Sporting Circular for the upcoming 2018 Sporting Season.

"The meeting of the Executive Board has reviewed the results of yesterday's gathering of the Non-Sporting Council and has also taken decisions in sporting, administrative as well as non-sporting matters. I am very happy about the always excellent cooperation and fruitful discussions in the EB since the very first day", said FIM Europe President Dr. Wolfgang Srb after the meeting.

"We work closely together with the European Federations and support as much as possible their goals - this is our clear mission statement. The General Secretariat in Rome is indispensable for our work and is a well respected service center for the European Federations".
