Individual Speedway Euro Championship at Pardubice (Czech Republic)

The town of Pardubice in the east of the Czech Republic hosted the SemiFinal 4 of the Individual Speedway European Championship, which was held in front of around 1100 spectators. The meeting was run with sunny, warm weather. 18 riders took part to the event.

Thanks to the work of the local organizers, the track was ready for a perfect competition and the spectators enjoyed a very good race.

Antonio Lindback from Sweden won ahead of German Kai Huckenbeck and of home rider Eduard Karcmar, and the three riders qualified to the challenge which will be held in Terenzano in one week (on May 5th) The meeting was crash free and was run over in less than 3 hours. Photos ©Jiri Zita.
