European Supersport 300 Cup at Oschersleben (Germany)

In race 1 of European Supersport 300 Cup at Oschersleben, in Germany the winner was Michal Bulik (photo 1) from Maco Racing Team. The gap at the finish line was less than 0,1 sec. on Samuel Lochhoff from South Africa. With the second place Lochhoff (Austrian YART Team under Samurai-Yart Racing) won the SSP 300 European CUP 2018.

The second place in the Cup was also fixed after this race for Tarec van der Merwe from South Africa.

Wet conditions for today's final raceday. The warm up was declared as wet and not all riders attended it.

The weather forecast for the afternoon was dry and sunny.

The race started in very good conditions and Samuel Lochhoff won but the fastest lap of the race was signed by Michal Bulik, a Slovakian rider of MACO Racing team who also took part to the World EWC Championship.

There were some very interesting battles in this group. After the finish line Samuel Lochhoff celebrated his victory in the race and in the season. Taric van der Merve was third in the race and second in the Cup. The third place in the Cup was gained by Voitech Schwarz after a technical issue for Lukas Simon.
