

8th July 2019

Press Release n. 68

Vintage Endurance Cup - Bikers Classic: the third round in Belgium

Photo credit: DG Sport

The 3rd round of the FIM Europe 4h Endurance Classic Cup in Spa-Francorchamps, Belgium, was raced on 06th-07th July.

The event was held at the Bikers Classic weekend, one of the biggest gatherings of classic racing motorcycles in Europe, with more than 800 riders.

63 teams (151 rider) qualified for the race and a new class joined the race: Evo class with bikes from '83 to '91, joined the competition together with the Cup's 4 usual classes: Classic, Maxi, Classic, Formula, Open.

Even if on the race day some rain fell down on Spa Circuit, the dry track allowed the riders to improve their lap times with a hard-fought battle for the victory in each class.

The winners of this round are: PowerRacing-JapautoClub in Maxi Classic; Team A.M. in Classic; RST Edge in Open; Bikeparts Classic Racing in Formula class. First time winner in EVO class is Dholda Racing Team.

The next race will be at Misano, Italy, on 11th-12th October.

European U21 Individual Speedway Championship

Qualifying Round 1 - Poland

Polish Gdansk track hosted the European U21 Speedway Qualifying Round 1 with riders from 8 different countries.

The meeting was run on a wet track following some rain in the first part of the day.

Top five final classification:

1. Roman Lakhbaum, Russia
2. Jakub Miškowiak, Poland
3. Daniel Bewley, Great Britain
4. Mateusz Cierniak, Poland
5. Michał Curzytek, Poland

Qualifying Round 2 - Hungary

The Qualifying Round 2 was raced in Nagyhalasz, Hungary, in front of 2 thousand spectators with good weather conditions. The fight for the qualifications to the final was so tight with several crashes. After 4 series, 8 riders had a chance to get a promotion. The best was Jan Kvech (14 points), second position for Petr Chlupac (12 points) and third for Artjom Trofimows (11 points). Favourite Nick Skorja had an unlucky race with a crash in heat 17.

Top five final classification:

1. Jan Kvech, Czech Republic
2. Petr Chlupac, Czech Republic
3. Artjoms Trofimovs, Latvia
4. Wiktor Lampart, Poland
5. Daniils Kolodinskis, Latvia

Qualifying Round 3 - Denmark

Holsted, in Denmark, hosted the Qualifying Round 3.

Top five final classification:

1. Jacobsen Frederik, Denmark
2. Jørgensen Jason, Denmark
3. Jeppesen Jonas, Denmark
4. Hansen Mads, Denmark
5. Woentin Alexander, Sweden

The 5 riders qualified will meet at the final, scheduled on 31st August at Rovno, Ukraine.

Road Race Hill Climb European Championship: fourth round

The fourth round of the Road Race Hill Climb European Championship was raced this weekend in Boécourt-La Caquerelle, Switzerland.

Because of the bad weather the event must be stopped for 2 hours on Saturday, while on Sunday the schedule had no delay.

The winners:

250GP class, Guido Testoni, Italy

Supersport class, Mauro Poncini, Switzerland

Superbike class, Jean Luc David, France

Supermoto class, Alexander Ponzellini, Italy

Dragbike European Championship: the race in Finland

First event for the Dragbike on Kauhava track, Finland.

The entry fields in three of the four classes was very good with a nice mix of international teams and national.

The winners of the different classes showed this mix perfectly: TFB was won by Filippos Papafilippou from Greece, STB was won by Harri Piensalmi from Finland, PSB was won by Fredrik Fredlund from Aland and SSB by Vesa Ruhanen from Finland.