Motocross of European Nations
heads to Riola Sardo in 2020!

The FIM Europe and Youthstream are pleased to announce that the FIM Europe's Motocross of European Nations will head to Italy in 2020.

The event is set to take place on 11th October in Riola Sardo, Sardinia. The venue is situated in the large Italian island of Sardinia, close to the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. It has become well known amongst the riders of MXGP as it's one of the favorite venues of many World Championship riders' pre-season preparation.

In 2019 it was Team Italy who were victorious once again as they went on to defend their title as they scored the least amount of points (44) closely followed by Team Spain in second (45 points) and Czech Republic in third (57 points). Meanwhile in the women's category, Team Netherlands were crowned champions as Nancy Van de Ven took two race
