

27th July 2020

Press Release n. 43

Supersport 300 Cup and Superstock 1000 Cup: the season started in Hungary

Pictures: Matteo Cianciosi

Last weekend Panonia Ring, Hungary, hosted the Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union with the first round of the Supersport 300 Cup and Superstock 1000 Cup,

The event had been organised at short notice as a result of the disruption of the original calendar due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Never the less it was a very well planned and executed event with a total of 89 rider, with a changeable weather that made the weekend very demanding.

In the Superstock 1000 Cup Mateo Laczko from Hungary won both the race on Saturday and Sunday, while the Swiss Florian Hüsl and the Slovenian David Bozic finished respectively second and third.

The Supersport 300 class is relatively new, but it's already becoming an important entry class for the young riders sharpening their skills before the head for the larger machines or even the FIM championship in this class.

Winner in both the days was Petr Svoboda, from Chez Republic. Mateusz Hulewicz (Poland) got the second position in race1 and race2. Third position for the Slovenian Lukas Simon on Saturday and for the Hungarian Mate Szamado on Sunday.

Next round will be on 30th August in Croatia.

Women's European SS 300 Cup:
Spanish Neila Santos keeps on ruling

Second round for the Women's European SS 300 Cup at Misano World Circuit Marco Simoncelli, Italy, together with the Italian Road Racing Championship.

Another event at closed doors due to Covid-19 restrictions.

After the amazing win in the first round, the Spanish rider Neila Santos keeps on ruling both the two races.

Respectively one second and one third positions for the Italian Sabrina Della Manna and Roberta Ponziani, with a great battle in the first heat.

Next round is on 5th-06th September at Imola Circuit, Italy.

Speedway European Championship: round 3 and round 4

Last week the Speedway European Championship was in Rybnik for round 3 and in Gniezno for round 4 with open races for the public and the track racing lovers.

After the victory in the second round, Leon Madsen claimed his victory in Rybnik too. Second place for Grigorij Laguta and third for the wild card Bartosz Zmarzlik.

In Gniezno Robert Lambert won ahead local hero Timo Lahti and Grigorij Laguta. The next round will be on 29th July in Torun, Poland.

The standing:

1. Robert Lambert (Great Britain) 53 pts
2. Leon Madsen (Denmark) 51 pts
3. Grigorij Laguta (Russia) 44 pts