DRYML NEW INDIVIDUAL SPEEDWAY EUROPEAN CHAMPION

The fourth and last final of the Individual Speedway European Championship was held today on the Austrian track of Mureck.

For the first time, the title of an European Speedway Champion was given after a set of 4 final races.

The new champion is Ales Dryml, Czech Republic, who could defend his leading position without too much efforts.

2nd finished Robert Miskowiak (Poland), the 3rd place was kept by Andriy Karpov (Ukraine).

Winner of the last race was Kenni Larsen, Denmark, who defeated Robert Miskowiak only by run off.

A crowd of nearly 2000 spectators saw a well organised event with excellent races.
