FIFTH ROUND OF EMX 125CC IN UDDEVALLA

The fifth round of the 125cc 2 stroke Motocross European Championship was held today in Uddevalla (Sweden) under different weather conditions. On Saturday when the first race was held, was no rain during the races, but on Sunday heavy rain was in front of the race and during the race it rains also, but not so much. The track was in a very good condition and was drivable for all riders.

In the first race Slovenian Tim Gajser (KTM) won in front of Latvian Pauls Jonass (KTM) and Swedish Anton Lundgren (KTM). In the second race it was again Tim Gajser who won the race and Pauls Jonass was again second. Third position was for Norwegian Magne Klingsheim (KTM).

In the Championship Tim Gajser hold his first place with 245 points in front of Magne Klingsheim with 168 points.

The sixth round is scheduled to be held on Sunday the 19th of August in Mattelrey (Great Britain).
