The Balkan Motorcycle Union hosted the Management Council Meeting in Belgrade

Saturday 6th December last FIM Europe Management Council took place at Hotel Zira in Belgrade.

The meeting was long but very satisfying and allowed the Management Council to highlight the results of the first five months of the new mandate. “I am satisfied of the huge quantity of work carried out thanks to a cohesive team work. We have still a lot to do but I believe that, with this positive atmosphere of collaboration, we will prepare the next sporting season and the several project ongoing at the best”, the FIM Europe President Dr. Wolfgang Srb declared.

Among the many decisions taken by the Management Council we can notice: € 22.500 of further subsidies granted to the FMNs also thanks to the development fund created by the President, renouncing to his fix indemnity; the approval of the agreement to be signed with Dorna for the European Superbike and Moto2 within the FIM CEV Repsol as well as for the Superstock 600cc joint to the FIM WSBK; the approval of the starting permission included upon the one event and one event promospport licences.
