The city of Budel, in the Netherlands, is hosting the European Motoball Championship. Yesterday, the Day 6 of the series was held and five matches were played.

Youth team Netherlands-Youth team Germany 1-6

Germany has much more selection abilities, so they managed to tire out the Dutch team, which was not bad, either.

Netherlands-Russia 2-7

Russia were preparing for semi-finals, but they did commit also in this match and won it with the result of 2-7. The Netherlands played their last game in this championship and were greatly cheered by their fans.

Lithuania- Ukraine 10-2

Lithuania was really strong in this last match and Ukraine did their best but managed to score only twice. In the final standing Lithuania is 6th with 2 points and

Press Release

Ukraine is last with zero points.

SEMI-FINALS

Russia-France 4-1

Tough game and good performance from both teams, but the Russian defence was superb and they outclassed France and gained the entrance in final with the result of 4-1.

Germany-Belarus 6-2

Belarus scored a penalty at the 11th minute and the first half of the match ended with this result. But at the beginning of the second half, Germany broke Belarus's defence and scored at once. For the rest of the match Germany was a step further than Belarus and won the match with the result of 6-2. So the final match will be between Russia and Germany.

Today the European Motoball Championship is continuing with the 7th and last day.
