On January 15th at the offices of the FIM in Mies a meeting was held between the FIM and FIM Europe for careful planning the 2015 joint activities.

The year promises to be full of events related to the institutional commitments, sports and non-sports and numerous projects in the pipeline, but for this reason it will be surely also generous in satisfaction.

Among the topics discussed in a joint session, but also in separate tables at political and executive level, the following themes: revision of the Statutes, Strategic Planning, Governance, Ethics Committee, relations with EU, organization of offices in the new building of the FIM in Mies, harmonization of rules, periodic meetings, subsidies for the projects, sporting issues and recognition of volunteers.

“I am very happy that our cooperation has reached a high level of mutual trust and understanding, thus achieving the best results for all of us. It is our clear mission to build strong relations for the benefit of the Federations”, Dr Wolfgang Srb said closing the meeting.
