EMX 125, 250 and 300cc in Talavera de la Reina (Spain) - Day 2

Talavera de la Reina (Spain) hosted this weekend the European Motocross in the classes 125, 250 and 300cc.

Race1 of all classes was held yesterday while today the riders struggled in Race2.

In EMX125 Spanish Jorge Prado Garcia, who yesterday had finished second, managed to win today improving his advantage in the leadership of the general standing. Second position in Race2 for yesterday's winner Josiah Natzke, from New Zealand. Third position for British Conrad Mewse, completing a podium of all KTM.

In EMX250 the winner of yesterday's race, French rider Maxime Desprey won again on his Kawasaki, beating once again Belgian Damon Graulus, on Yamaha. Third position for Danish rider Thomas Olsen Kjer. The leadership of the general standing is in the hands of Dutch Nick Kouwenberg, who finished his race in 6th position.

In EMX300 the leader of the championship, Belgian Yentel Martens, conquered the second victory of the weekend on his Husqvarna. The podium of Race2 was identical to Race1's, with British Lewis Gregory in second position on Yamaha before Italian Marco Maddii on KTM.
