

22nd July 2019

Press Release n. 75

Supersport 300 and Superstock 1000 Cup: fourth round in Germany

On 19th-20th-21st July the fourth round of the Supersport 300 and Superstock 1000 Cup was held in Oschersleben, Germany.

Next round will be in Grobnik, Croatia, at the end of August.

Supersport 300

Even the race was a thrilling from the beginning to the end, this round was ruled by Oliver König, who won both Race1 and Race2. Second and third in both the races were Miloslav Hlava and Jiri Nespesny. All the three riders are from the Czech Republic.

Superstock1000

One ruler in this category too. The Swedish Christopher Bergman won Race 1 and Race2.

After a bad crash in Slovakiaring, Michal Filla finished second in Race 1 while Arnaud Friedrich in Race2. Third in both the races Kamil Krzemien.

European 125cc Youth Track Racing Cup: the Final in Poland

Thrilling final for the European 125cc Youth Track Racing Cup.

The race took place in Torun, Poland, on Saturday 22nd July with the participation of 10 nations.

The Czech Republic riders ruled the competition both in ranks 1 and 2.

Final classification:

1. Jaroslav Vanicek, CZE
2. Vojtech Sachl, CZE
3. Luke Harrison, GBR

European U21 Team Speedway Championship: Final cancelled

The final of the European U21 Team Speedway Championship scheduled on 20th July in Macon, France, was cancelled to the bad weather conditions.