Track Racing Commission

Track Racing Commission

The commission proposes a number of rule changes in order to armonise the various disciplines of Track Racing with the FIM's CCP. Director of FIM CCP Mr Armando Castagna took part to the meeting and supported the commission with their work. The 2020 calendar was presented and the majority of dates has been confirmed, together with the rider allocations for the various championship events. The Individual Speedway European Championship (SEC) will be again run by the promotor "One Sport".

Mr Piotr Szymański, Chairman Track Racing Commission

"The meeting in Rome was very successful with a number of discussions taking place throughout the day. Some proposals were tabled and will be passed to the Management Council for approval. The meeting ended with the various Working Groups being tasked with a number of projects, progress of which will be reviewed at the Congress in Prague next July".

Motoball Commission

Motoball Commission

A lot of good news during the meeting. Pro Motoball Russia is interested to Promote Motoball for the next 4 years and they are asking for the exclusive TV and Marketing rights. 2020 European Championship for Juniors and Seniors will be held in Moscow Region. For 2021 Lithuania and Belarus are considering to host the European Championship.

Mrs Pascale Rescho, Chairman Motoball Commission

“It was a very constructive and effective meeting with many important decisions. The French Club Suma Troyes will host the European Championship in 2022 and Stavropol local government was presenting their plans to invest into a new Motoball Stadium for 7.000 Spectators in Ipatovo, South Russia. In this reason they are applying to host the European Championship in 2023”.
