The final round of the Superenduro Cup was raced on Saturday at Papp Laszlo Arena in Budapest, Hungary. A great evening with 34 riders fighting for the European title in front of over 5.500 spectators.

The organizers did an excellent job, both for the route and the details with technical passages that highlighted the best riders.

14 riders reached the two finals and the title remained uncertain until the last lap with an amazing fight between the Swedish Magnus Thor and the Italian Sonny Goggia, who had to contain the Germans Springmann and Pfeifer and the Slovenian Spindler. At the end the race was won by Sonny Goggia of Team Berghem in front of Thor and Marco Pfeifer.

Fifth place for the home rider the Hungarian Zsigovitz Norbert, supported by the local public.

The season 2020 ended with Magnus Thor winner of the FIM Europe Superenduro CUP, followed by Sonny Goggia and Springmann. At the prizing ceremony the FIM President Mr Jorge Viegas and the Chairman of Enduro & Rally Commission Mr Marco Bolzonello and Pavol Sas (clerk of the course).
