2021 Motocross European Championships Provisional Calendar

The FIM Europe and Infront Moto Racing are delighted to share the provisional calendar for the 2021 Motocross European Championships: EMX125, EMX250, EMX Open, EMX2T, EMX65 and EMX85.

The 2021 season will begin later than usual; the plan is now to kick things off at the end of April, in order to give time for the pandemic to ease and for the teams and riders to carry out the testing and preparations that are needed for another intense season of racing. The aim is to keep the calendar with the usual format, though this will be adapted, if needed, to the evolution of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The 2021 racing calendar will introduce three brand-new venues, for the GP of the Netherlands in Oss, along with the GP of Finland in Itti-KymiRing, already presented to feature in the 2020 calendar but then postponed to 2021, and the GP of Igora Drive in Russia.

Additionally, Championships will also be returning to some venues, including Agueda, Teutschenthal, Orlyonok, Kegums, Loket, Lommel, Uddevalla, Afyonkarahisar, St Jean d'Angely and into Xanadu-Arroyomolinos.
