Motocross European Championships:
calendars updates

FIM Europe and Infront Moto Racing are excited to reveal that this season, the European calendars will see two Grand Prix's taking place in Turkey, with the MXGP of Turkey and MXGP of Afyon.

The Turkish double-header will see rounds of the EMXOpen and EMX2t Presented by FMF Racing.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Turkey has successfully managed and kept the virus under control with its strong health system and therefore it has been decided to hold one more round of MXGP in Afyonkarahisar, the City of Sports.

This year's Turkish Grand Prix will host the first double-header of 2021 under the auspices of the Presidency of the Republic of Turkey. The MXGP of Turkey will go ahead as originally planned on the 4th and 5th of September, while the second event, the MXGP of Afyon will take place mid-week on the following Tuesday and Wednesday, the 7th and 8th of September to replace the MXGP of Sweden that was postponed previously to 2022.
