FIM Europe, together with Infront Moto Racing and FIM, is delighted to announce the 2023 Motocross European calendar update.

16 events together with the FIM Motocross World Championship for 4 different series: EMX250, EMX125, EMX Open and EMX2T, adding the Finals for EMX65 and EMX85 and the Yamaha bLU cRU.

The first round of the 2023 season will be held in Riola Sardo as the MXGP of Sardegna will take place on March the 25th and 26th. In 2023 the venue will be hosting the third MXGP race in its history.

The second event of the 2023 season sees the return of Switzerland as Frauenfeld gets ready to welcome back the MXGP of Switzerland since 2018 but this time the circuit will be completely brand new, creating an added challenge for the riders.

Further update to the calendar features the MXGP of Finland, which is now confirmed on July the 30th and will return in Hyvinkaa for the second year in a row after the success of the 2022.
