

30th August 2023

Press Release n. 73

Tout Terrain Rally Cup: Dinaric Rally

Pictures copyright: Actiongraphers

The Dinaric Rally was the perfect setting for the third and next to last round of the Tout Terrain Rally Cup. A unique experience that took participants through some of the most challenging terrain of Croatia, with a focus on navigation, endurance, and the thrill of the race.

Open to motorcycles, quads and SSVs featured a variety of stages and time trials. With its combination of high-speed racing, technical challenges, and breathtaking scenery, Dinaric Rally was the perfect destination for seasoned rally riders but also for motorsport enthusiasts and adventure seekers alike.

The event was raced from 20th to 26th of August with special stages through endless fields, razor-sharp rocks, hills, mountains, rivers, ancient bridges, and more. Six days of racing particularly warm with the start at 7am and routes of 110 to 415 km per day.

Austrian rider Tobias Ebster (Husqvarna) ruled the Overall classification finishing first on all days. Behind him two Italian riders: second position for Christian Pastori (Husqvarna) and third for Matteo Bottino (Beta).

Race winners

M1 class - Paolo Carraro (Husqvarna), ITA

M2 class - Thomas Zoldos (Beta), FRA

M3 class - Tobias Ebster (KTM), Austrian

M4 class - Christian Pastori (Husqvarna), ITA

M5 class - Marco Rubbiani (KTM), ITA

M6 class - Sulleyman Aydin (Yamaha), TUR

Dragbike European Championship: next to last round in Germany

Perfect conditions for the fourth and next to last round of the Dragbike European Championship in Hockenheim, Germany.

Despite the bad weather forecasts, races were disputed with no delays or problems and about 60 riders got on track for thrilling challenges.

Winners of this round

Junior Dragbike - Geeuwke Siersema, NED

ProStockBike - Jörg Lymant, GER

SuperStreetBike - Alan Morrison, GBR

SuperTwinBike - Marcus Christiansen, DEN

TopFuelBike - Eric Richard, FRA

PHOTO BY IVAN GARRISON FROST/HUGHES / DRAGBIKE.COM

Pictures copyright: NitroShutter.com

Motoball Junior European Championship:
German team takes the title!

Four years after the last event, the Motoball Junior European Championship was finally back in action. The last event was raced in 2019, before the pandemic, and this year the Championship came back for some great challenges in Jarmen, Gemany.

During 2 days teams from Germany, Lithuania, the Netherlands and France competed for the 2023 title. No less than 64 players and members of the delegations enjoyed the matches, with 70 goals scored in 8 games.

At the end of 2 thrilling days of action the German team took the title in front of home crew.

European 250cc Pairs Speedway Championship: Poland walks away the winner

Dramatic battles set place in occasion of the third round of the European 250cc Pairs Speedway Championship in the city of Prague, in the Czech Republic.

Once more Championship's leaders Denmark and Poland ruled the race, competing together in the final heat. At the end of a thrilling fight, home team won with the result 4:2. Thanks to this success team Poland leads the standings by two points: the last race promises a big fight for the title.

Third place for Great Britain ahead of Sweden, that in the final round will fight for the bronze medal.

Top three

1. Poland (Kacper Mania, Maksymilian Pawelczak, Emil Maroszek)
2. Denmark (Mikkel Andersen, Patrick Kruse, Villads Pedersen)
3. Great Britain (William Cairns, Cooper Rushen)