FIM Europe together with Maxim and the Enduro & Rally Commission is delighted to announce the 2024 Enduro European Championship provisional calendar.

Four events starting from March until November. The first round of the 2024 season will be held in Castiglion Fiorentino, well-known venue for hosting the European Championship in 2009, as well the EnduroGP World Championship and many national races. Then the Championship will move to San Marino, where in June will host an European Enduro race for the first time in history. In August the series will race the third round in Finland, in the city of Sipoo, while the final race will be in Germany at the beginning of November.
