

07th November 2023

Press Release n. 100

EICMA welcomes the single round of the Supercross European Championship

All is set!

The single round of the Supercross European Championship is ready to kick off this weekend in occasion of Eicma Exhibition in Rho, Milano.

The Italian venue will host the event in combination with the last two rounds of the Supercross Italian Championship as part of the rich and thrilling schedule of MotoLive experience: action, show and adrenaline that enlivens the outdoor area of the Exhibition. The public will join the event for free, just entering to Eicma with the daily ticket.

The race is set to take place in on 11th November and the excitement is mounting among riders, teams and fans for four the action of four hard-fought classes: SX Men, SX 250, SX 125 and SX Junior 85.

Don't miss the action!