The FIM Europe is happy to inform that the provisional calendar for the 2024 Northern Talent Cup has been revealed.

It's a whole new era of competition as the Cup welcomes Honda as the single manufacturer and Pirelli as tyre supplier, in line with much of the Road to MotoGP™.

A pre-season test will start the action at Oschersleben before 7 rounds, 14 races.

The season is set to kick off at the classic TT Circuit Assen alongside WorldSBK, as is becoming NTC tradition. From there the Cup heads for the Sachsenring, Oschersleben and Most alongside the IDM, before a second round at the Sachsenring alongside MotoGP™ at the German Grand Prix.

From the biggest sporting event in Germany, the NTC will head back to the TT Circuit Assen, this time alongside the IDM, before the season finale at the awe-inspiring Nürburgring.

Registration is open at www.northerntalentcup.com until the 31st of December for all those looking to take their place on the Road to MotoGP™.
