3 rd February	 GP HUNGARY	Budapest

The FIM Europe, together with the Enduro & Rally Commission, would like to announce an update to the 2024 Superenduro European Cup calendar.

In addition to the three rounds already scheduled in Poland, Germany and Hungary, the series will see an event in Romania too.

On January 20th the city of Cluj-Napoca, situated in the northwestern part of the country and considered the unofficial capital of the historical province of Transylvania, will be the venue of the GP of Romania. This will be the third event of the series: the Cup is set to kick off on December 9th in Krakow, while the second round is scheduled on January 6th in Riesa, Germany. The final round of the calendar will be hosted in Budapest on February 3rd.
