

27th November 2023

Press Release n. 109

Final meeting of the FIM Europe Management Council in 2023

From left to right: Roy N. Wetterstad, Juhani Halme, Manuel Marinheiro, Michal Sikora, Alessandro Sambuco, Martin de Graaff, Nicoleta Melania Olariu, Stijn Rentmeesters, Francesco C. Mezzasalma, Rodolfo Romeo, Silvia Monatti.

The FIM Europe Management Council met at the General Secretariat in Fiumicino (Rome) on Sunday 26th November.

About FIM Europe (www.fim-europe.com) - The FIM Europe (in the past UEM, Union Européenne de Motocyclisme) includes 47 National Federations (FMNs) and 6 Regional Motorcycling Associations and is a European organization acting within its attributions in all matters in relation with motorcycling activities and, as such, in domains ranging from sport, tourism, leisure, environment, mobility, road safety, legislative affairs, protection and defence of the rights and interests of motorcycle users. As far as motorcycle sport is concerned, the FIM Europe is the supreme and sole European authority empowered by the FIM to control European motorcycling sport activities organized under its jurisdiction throughout Europe. The aims of FIM Europe are to develop and promote all forms of motorcycling in Europe as well as the co-operation and friendship between its members, and notably: to examine all questions related to the development of motorcycling in Europe; to organize European Championships and to establish all competitions that appear beneficial subject to the prior approval of the FIM; to co-operate with the FIM in all matters relating to the organization of international events and motorcycling in general; to organize camps and seminars for riders, officials, coaches and administrators of various European FMNs; to support the creation and development of motorcycling activities in all European countries; to promote the co-operation among all European FMNs; to promote motorcycling among young people, both as sport and motorcycling in general; to encourage the use of motorcycles in European countries and to develop motorcycle tourism; to represent the interests of motorcyclists before European authorities; to promote in the media the sport of motorcycling and the use of motorcycles in all of Europe.

At the presence of the Honorary President Martin de Graaff and Vice Presidents, a lot of topics were discussed. During the meeting the usual points were on the agenda, including the Reports of the President, 1st and 2nd Deputy Presidents, Vice Presidents and Secretary General.

The chairmen of the Sporting and Beyond-Sporting Council reported about Saturday's meetings and councils, discussing about the 2023 season and next 2024 plans and proposals.

Michal Sikora, FIM Europe President

"We have just finished an intensive but productive weekend in new location of EUR district in Rome. On Saturday we had meetings of all the Commissions: it has been very good for all our members to exchange their knowledge and experiences. On Sunday we had the last Management Council meeting of this year. We had discussed the outcome of the season as well as various proposal from commissions and applications for 2024 calendar".

About FIM Europe (www.fim-europe.com) - The FIM Europe (in the past UEM, Union Européenne de Motocyclisme) includes 47 National Federations (FMNs) and 6 Regional Motorcycling Associations and is a European organization acting within its attributions in all matters in relation with motorcycling activities and, as such, in domains ranging from sport, tourism, leisure, environment, mobility, road safety, legislative affairs, protection and defence of the rights and interests of motorcycle users. As far as motorcycle sport is concerned, the FIM Europe is the supreme and sole European authority empowered by the FIM to control European motorcycling sport activities organized under its jurisdiction throughout Europe. The aims of FIM Europe are to develop and promote all forms of motorcycling in Europe as well as the co-operation and friendship between its members, and notably: to examine all questions related to the development of motorcycling in Europe; to organize European Championships and to establish all competitions that appear beneficial subject to the prior approval of the FIM; to co-operate with the FIM in all matters relating to the organization of international events and motorcycling in general; to organize camps and seminars for riders, officials, coaches and administrators of various European FMNs; to support the creation and development of motorcycling activities in all European countries; to promote the co-operation among all European FMNs; to promote motorcycling among young people, both as sport and motorcycling in general; to encourage the use of motorcycles in European countries and to develop motorcycle tourism; to represent the interests of motorcyclists before European authorities; to promote in the media the sport of motorcycling and the use of motorcycles in all of Europe.