Press Release n. 05

The Elective General Assembly of the Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union confirms Robert Zikovic as President

The AAMU - Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union Elective General Assembly took place inside the Hotel Arche Krakowska in Warsaw, Poland.

The FIM Europe President Michal Sikora attended the event together with the Secretary General Alessandro Sambuco.

Thanks to the excellent collaboration and the warm welcome of the PZM Federation, at the end of a successful weekend Robert Zikovic has been re-elected as Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union President for the second mandate (2024-2027), as well as Cristian Farinelli confirmed as Secretary General. Milos Balaz from Slovakian Motorcycle Federation was appointed as New Vice President.

Michal Sikora, FIM Europe President

“It was great occasion to host the Elective General Assembly of Alpe Adria Motorcycle Union. We had a productive meeting and elected the new Management. I want to congratulate President Zikovic, Secretary General Farinelli and Vice President Balaz”.

Alessandro Sambuco, FIM Europe Secretary General

“It was a pleasure to participate in the work of the AAMU General Assembly, as it was a pleasure to see how this Regional Association is growing from an organizational and sporting point of view. With my colleague Cristian Farinelli we are in close contact and we have an active collaboration in the interest of the continental motorcycling sport”.

Robert Zikovic, AAMU President

“Many thanks to all AAMU member Federations for giving me opportunity to continue in a new mandate as AAMU President. From today AAMU is stronger for one federation thanks to AMF re-joining us. Congratulations to all colleagues working with us in the past four years, and to all colleagues appointed to new positions. Thanks to PZM & FIM Europe President Sikora for organizing such a great event, Elective General Assembly here in Warsaw”.

Cristian Farinelli, AAMU Secretary General

“First of all, let me thank PZM & FIM Europe President Michal Sikora for the great organization of the Assembly. Being re-appointed for the next mandate it means that the job provided in the last four year was quality one despite the pandemic situation
